

Scope of Business for ISO 9001 Certification

1. Nature of Business:

- Exporting high-quality garments, including T-shirts, polo shirts, tops, co-ords, track pants, other fashion accessories.

2. Key Activities:

- Design, development, and production of garments using 100% cotton knits and other premium fabrics.
- Quality control at every stage of manufacturing to ensure compliance with international standards.
- Export operations for B2B clients in the USA, Europe, and other global markets.
- Customer-centric approach to meet diverse requirements, including custom orders and private labeling.

3. Processes Covered Under Scope:

- Raw material sourcing and inspection.
- Cutting, stitching, finishing, and packaging.
- Comprehensive quality assurance and final inspection before dispatch.
- Order management, logistics, and FOB shipping from Kolkata or other ports of India.

4. Commitment to Quality:

- Adhering to ISO 9001:2015 principles of customer focus, continuous improvement, and efficient processes.
- Ensuring the consistent delivery of products that meet customer requirements and enhance satisfaction.

5. Market Served:

- Domestic market through retail outlets and online platforms.
- International markets with a focus on Europe, USA, and other regions, catering to wholesalers, importers, and retailers.

6. Business Objectives:

- To deliver premium-quality garments that align with customer expectations.
- To maintain a structured and effective quality management system for continuous improvement.